Claire's class have been focusing on growing during their science lessons. They have planted and cared for cress, beans and sunflowers. The sunflowers have grown so much that the class have repotted them in the garden.

A major part of the project has been to discover what plants need to grow and the pupils have experimented by planting seeds in the light and in the dark, with and without water, with and without air and space to grow. They then analysed the results and drew their conclusions.

Class 5 visited the Tim Lamb and had a fun filled day! We really enjoyed the soft play and trampolines as well as the garden! Even when the hailstone came it did not spoil our day.

The School Council recently, presented an assembly to their secondary peers about the Ragbag Recycling Scheme. They informed everyone why it is important to recycle clothes and gave details on how to support the scheme. They encouraged everyone to bring in bagged unwanted paired shoes and old clothing which they would place in the recycling unit.

They have also taken part in the interview process to recruit new staff for our school.

It has been another busy half term for the School Council who have been amazing!

This half term Clair's class have been following a set of instructions to bake cakes for King Charles III's Coronation. We have been checking that we have ordered our instructions correctly and that we have used imperative verbs. We were then able to eat our delicious cakes at our Coronation party! Yummy!

We have also been exploring texts about Kings, including 'The King's pants', which was so funny! We've been having great fun in Clair's class this half term!

Each week one of our 6th Form pupils Chloe, works on our main site in the early years classes as part of her work experience. The children really enjoy circle time with Chloe.
